Ex-Judge Puster Says He Has Searched All the Titles to the Property and Finds It Is Now Legally

Houses rarely figure among lost articles. They are hard to lose, and when ball of brick and mortar they have a tendency of the house of quite a different order, however. Not that it crawled away from its foundations and secreted itself. It is merely lost legally in the shuffle, or, at least, such is the opinion of several jurists.

It is a three-story house of red brick, and is located at No. 128 Washington street. It is known even in Priedrichsruh, for the hron Chancellor worke and sent from there his permission to let the name inserbed on the door of the liquor store on the ground floor be "Fuert Bismarck." Officers of steamers that go to Hamburg and Bremen know the house. Yet it is ligst and there's no denying it.

Three shopkeeper, Leo Wangersheim, has his opening on the anulyreavay of Bismarck's birth. He bad bought the shop from one Kinpperstuck, who never paul rent or faxes on it. Dr. Reflly determined to try the efficacy of the tetanns anti-toxin, and he secured a bottle from the Board of Health. The officials of that department say the antitoxin has been used but little, and that only two or three bottles had been sent out before Dr. Reilly secured his. They had received as yet no reports from the institutions to which it had been sent and they are eagerly waiting to receive Dr. Rellly's full report, which he will make at the request of the department, made in its official circular, which also admits that "the exact value of tetanus anti-toxin in the treatment of this disease and the best method of administration have not been fully de-
